Kardex Remstar International Group

Change in the Management Board of the Kardex Group

Jürg Müller, Head of the Kardex (KRM) division at the Kardex Group, has decided to leave the company. Until a successor is appointed and with immediate effect, Jos De Vuyst, Chief Executive Officer of the Kardex Group, will take over the management of the Kardex (KRM) division which is geared towards the development, production and maintenance of computer-controlled, automatic storage, supply and distribution systems.

The Board of Directors and Management Board of Kardex AG would like to thank Jürg Müller for his outstanding commitment, particularly in the past five years as a member of the Management Board, during which time the Kardex (KRM) division has continually expanded its strong market position, and would like to wish him all the best for the future.
