Kardex sells RETIS Software AG, Jona (Switzerland)

The Kardex Remstar International Group, a materials handling specialist, has sold one of its software companies, RETIS Software AG, Jona (sales CHF 3.2 m.) to Stöcklin Logistik AG, Dornach.

The Stöcklin Group takes over RETIS Software AG, which belonged to the Kardex Special-Purpose Handling Systems (Storage Engineering) division, as of October 1, 2003.

According to concurrent opinion, the new environment will result in improved possibilities for development for RETIS, which is specialized in stock management. In the past, Stöcklin was one of RETIS's main customers.

It was agreed that no details of the price should be released.

For further information, please contact Mr Richard Flury (CEO) or Dr. Georges Pasche (CFO).
